CARGO

SINGAPORE

Allied World's Marine team underwrites a broad spread of internationally sourced cargo business that includes all types of goods in transit – whether by sea, air or land, plus storage risks. We focus on a diverse range of clients from small-to-medium sized enterprises (SMEs) to multinationals.

Drawing on extensive market knowledge and technical expertise and working closely with brokers, our underwriters are committed to delivering the highest level of service, are flexible in their approach and are empowered to make decisions. We place great emphasis on understanding our clients' business and the team travels regularly with brokers to meet and build relationships with our clients.
